A Welcome to Summer Interns

We would like to congratulate and extend a warm welcome to our Summer 2015 interns! We take great pride in the diversity reflected in this group, which includes two high school students, five undergraduate students and one student pursuing graduate studies. Among many other talents, their language proficiencies include Spanish, French, German, Creole, Russian, Tamil and, most likely, English. Be sure to check out our Executives and Staff page to learn all about the new students.

Candid Conversations About China & US

Last month, GP Director John C. Bersia joined an invitation-only series of private talks with high-level Chinese officials, academics and journalists in Atlanta, Georgia. The goal was to expand understanding and cooperation among the participants, which numbered about two dozen, half from the US & half from China. Organizers and facilitators of the roundtable included The Aspen Institute Communications and Society Program, the Chinese People's Association for Friendship with Foreign Countries and the Chinese State Council Information Office.

Bersia said, “The dialogue presented an unusual opportunity to examine critical issues and tensions in U.S.-China relations in an environment that encouraged candid, substantive conversations. It was enlightening and productive, paving the way for future discussions and exchanges.”

Expanding Community Partnerships

The long and productive partnership between GP and Orlando Rotary Club continues to grow. In May, GP facilitated three speakers for Orlando Rotary meetings: former GP fellow Lucien Charland on his Clinton Global Initiative-supported agricultural project in St. Kitts; Willard International Chairman Michael Willard on the current, volatile situation in Ukraine; and GP Director John C. Bersia on the challenges of human trafficking in the U.S. and abroad. In addition, Bersia and GP Assistant Director Jessica Gagnon have been active participants on Orlando Rotary’s planning committee for speakers and are assisting with the coming year’s lineup. Finally, Orlando Rotary recognized Bersia with a special award on May 25th, making him an Honorary Member “for meritorious service in the furtherance of Rotary ideals and as a steadfast friend of Rotary International.”
