Welcome to the New Semester

We at the Global Perspectives Office (GP) would like to welcome everyone to the Fall 2015 semester. We also wish to congratulate and welcome the Fall 2015 interns and fellows. This diverse group includes UCF graduate and undergraduate students, a Rollins College undergrad and one high school student. In addition to their many talents and cocurricular involvements, these students' language proficiencies range from American Sign Language to Urdu. Be sure to check out our Executives and Staff page to learn all about the new interns and fellows.

Event Spotlight

Mark your calendars for our first event of the season! On Monday, September 21, GP will welcome to UCF Ndaba Mandela, the grandson of anti-apartheid revolutionary and former President of South Africa Nelson Mandela. In a forum that is free and open to the public, Ndaba will discuss the impact Nelson Mandela has had on the world.

Michael Carroll - International Communication

In an effort to continue his grandfather's legacy, Mandela is the co-founder and chairman of the Africa Rising Foundation. The foundation is dedicated to promoting a positive image of Africa around the world and increasing its potential for growth in the areas of education, employment and international corporate alliances. To read more, visit www.arfoundation.co.

This public forum will take place at 10:30 a.m. in the Cape Florida Ballroom of the UCF Student Union. Audience members will be given an opportunity to ask questions at the event. For more information about the event or the GP, visit www.ucfglobalperspectives.org.
