REGISTER AT TINYURL.COM/FUTURE-US-ARAB-RELATIONS-REG

THIS EVENT WILL BE HOSTED ON ZOOM

UCF Global Perspectives and International Initiatives at the University of Central Florida in partnership with the School of Global Affairs and Public Policy at the American University in Cairo is launching the 2nd installment of an ongoing series of Future U.S.- Arab Relations.

This virtual event features His Royal Highness Prince Turki Al-Faisal, former Saudi ambassador, former intelligence chief, and Chairman of the Board for King Faisal Center for Research and Islamic Studies; and the Honorable Leon E. Panetta, U.S. Secretary of Defense, Director of Central Intelligence Agency, Chief of Staff to President Bill Clinton, Director for U.S. Office of Management and Budget, and Co-founder of Panetta Institute for Public Policy.

Join the ongoing discussion on the future of U.S.-Arab relations. In a rapidly changing global and regional context, what are the expectations of each side for cooperation? How will the U.S. and Arab nations mitigate new security threats and manage emerging challenges? Will the U.S. continue to play a leading role in regional affairs?
